Summer Activities

Opening the doors to a learning experience were Garry Hollins and Patty Edwards. These were the RHS students who attended the Future Homemakers of America state convention. The convention was held at the University of Kentucky during the summer.

Leading and learning! These were the six Student Council members who attended the Student Council Workshop at Georgetown. They were Joyce Noe, Ken Sadler, Ann Duncan Threlkeld, Denise Butler, Joe Emberger, and Marcia Luckett.

Two Junior girls were elected by the faculty to represent Russellville at Girls' State held at Transylvania College. Beth McCutchen and Mary Ann Emberger gained a great deal through this experience. Beth received a special honor. Having run for one of the nine state offices, Beth was elected Lieutenant Governor from the ranks of over 300 girls.

People Who Help Make R.H.S. A Fine School

Staff of the Vocational School — Mr. Nether and Mr. Bland, Mr. Bagwell, Mr. Vincent, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Knuckles, Mr. Dawkins, Mr. Herndon, Mr. Perkins, and Mr. Little.

We appreciate the delicious food served by Miss Janice Molsinger, Mrs. Oleta Outland, Mrs. Alberta Browder, and Mrs. Betty Chestnut.

Mr. Tandy Chestnut, left, and Mr. James Biob, right, help R. H. S. in more ways than it is possible to list.

Office Girls. It would be interesting to count the steps made by the office girls each day. They are — Georgeann Richardson, Connie Logan, Cindy Gregory, Judy Leeman, Georgia Herndon, Annette Wells, Mary Jackson, and Debbie Horton.

Our board members help determine policy. They are — Superintendent R. E. Stevenson, Dr. R. I. Yokley, Mr. Robert Gurn, Mr. Ross Dowden, Mr. W. H. Duncan, and Mr. R. L. Kirkpatrick, Chairman.

Mrs. Pauline Johnson is Supervisor of Instruction for all of Russellville's schools.

Miss Mary Ewing Hart — Keeping our money accounts correct is, perhaps, the most important of Miss Hart's duties.

Mr. William Lynch is Director of Pupil Personal for all of Russellville's public schools.

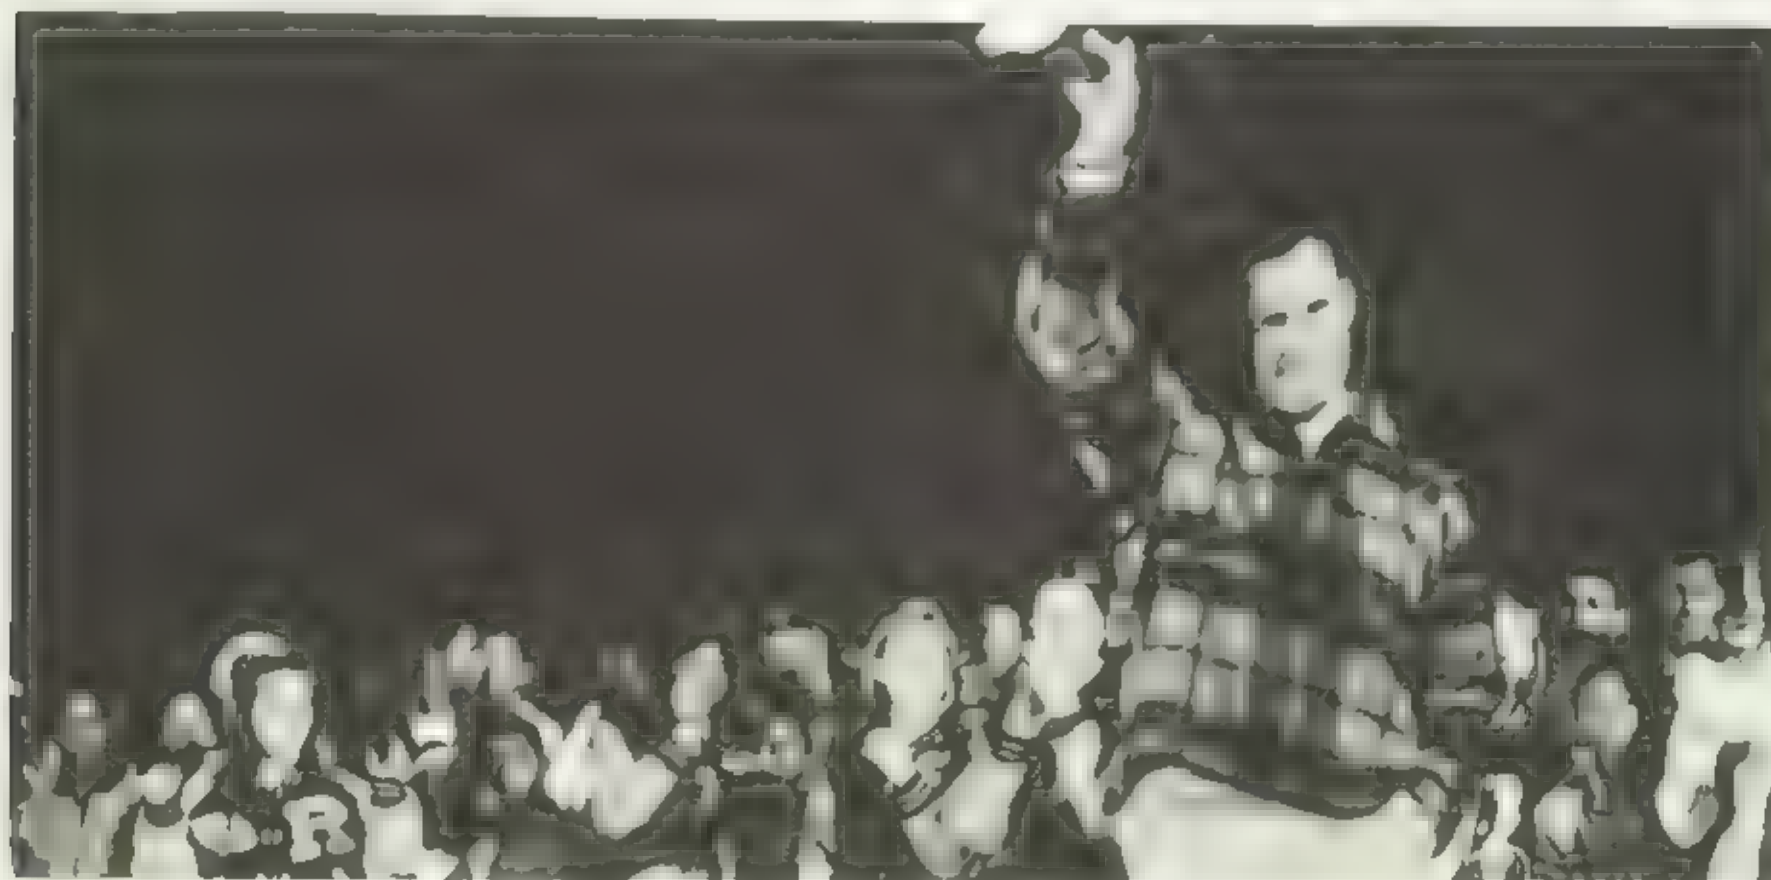

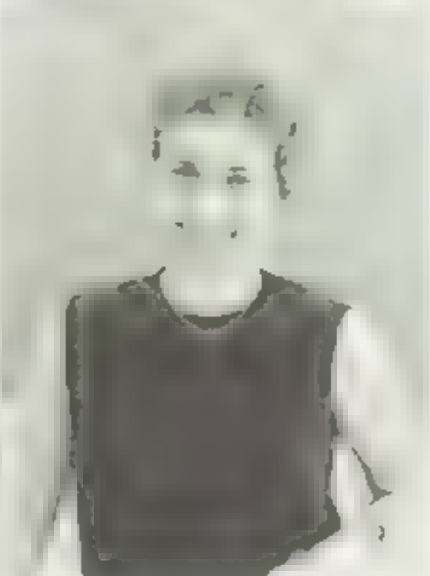

Mrs. Martha McQuire is a courteous and efficient secretary.

We, the editors of the '71 Panther, hope that you find this annual meaningful for you. Many hours of work and worry have been spent in preparing this yearbook. We hope you find the cover to be new, exciting and likable. In the Panther, we have tried to preserve the memories of 1971. If we have succeeded, we are proud; if not, we have tried.

PEP CLUB - THE SPIRIT BOOSTER

Ready and willing were the traits of the '71 Pep Club, led by Celia Richardson Secretary, Denise Butler — President, Diane Clark — Treasurer, and Sue Helton — Vice President. The club aided all school groups in their pursuits of victory. Many hours of hard work ended in a successful year for the Pep Club. Sponsors were Mrs. Marie Turner and Mr. David Johnson

Faces of RHS SPIRIT

Panther fans never ceased to display their enthusiasm at pep rallies, in sign-making, and at the games.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

NHS, a club of student excellence, carried out each of its projects with success in 70-71. Those holding official positions were. Hal Freeman, Treasurer, Beth McCutchen — Secretary, Bob Tattitch — President, Mary Ann Emberger — Typist; absent — Mike Justice — Vice President. Sponsors were Mrs. Eleanor Piper, Miss Katherine Jennings, and Mr. Russell Collins.

"Possessing characteristics of scholarship, leadership, service, and character . . ." all strove to achieve these values of NHS. From RHS's National Merit Scholars, Gail Henderson and Scott Neill, to the initiation of the new members, to the night of joint helpfulness in decorating the school Christmas tree, NHS members proved their convictions toward these values.

George Washington may have chopped down a cherry tree . . . but, Scott Neill and Bobby Tattitch together cut down this "3 foot beauty" for the lobby.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The voice of student government is the function of the Student Council. As one project the Council sent eight members to Vicksburg, Michigan over Spring Vacation to compare and evaluate our school with theirs and others. The Council serves as the leadership of our RHS students. The leaders of our leaders were: Sharon Griffith — Recording Secretary, Denise Butler — Secretary, Mary Crit Threlkeld — Treasurer, Beth McCutchen — Vice President, Scott Neill — President. Sponsors were Mr. Larry Reeder, Mrs. Larry Reeder, and Mr. Mike Roberts

A new organization was developed this year. The folk guitar class consisted of these eager students who met each Wednesday night at school in front of Channel Two. Mrs. Hazel Carver directed the group in their endeavors.

THE FOLK GUITARS

The club was quite outstanding. It was under the leadership of Vicki Hankins — Vice President of Speech, Mary Ann Emberger — Vice President of Drama, Beth McCutchen — President, Celia Richardson — Treasurer, Vickie Lowe — Secretary, and sponsor, Jim Turner.

MARCHING PANTHERS

"It's a 7:00 o'clock world when the whistle blows!" is an expression typical to band members. Many long hours of hard work go on for the successful endeavors of the band. Fall is filled with instrument practices and extra time spent "on the field," preparing for the football games.

The second semester is the time for concert band. Solos and ensembles practice for their day of contest. Meanwhile, the entire band is in complete readiness for their finale, their contest and Spring Concert Performance.

All in all, it is the Spirit, Drive and Ability of the members that result in the Marching Pride of RHS — The Marching Panthers.

1971 SPIRIT

GO! GO! GO! The cheers of RHS would have been cold and still if not for the vigor and enthusiasm of our cheerleaders. These seven girls were ever present, ready to cheer their team on with smiles. Never did they appear tired and worn out even though they had just finished many long hours of practice. Never did they "give up the ship."

Credit should also be given to the Junior Varsity cheerleaders. Throughout their whole season they practiced hard and appeared at every game, no matter how early. The Junior Varsity cheerleaders were Nancy Smith, Patti Neal, Alice McGuire, Sherrie Farmer — captain, and Sherry Hinton.

It was a great year for both coaches and the Panthers. The Panthers worked diligently throughout the season in order to be "champs". Coaches Kirkpatrick, Gladden, Linton, and Aeby ruled the innumerable practices, while the Panthers were "masters" of the field during the moments of truth — the games. The team's tri-captains were Bob Tattitch, Bill Costello, and Virgil Benton
1970 — a "great year!" Titles awarded to a deserving team — CLASS A, REGION I CHAMPS, ALL SKY CHAMPS, and WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE CHAMPS. "The Panthers came, saw, and conquered."

FOR US

For a very short time, we were inhabitants of the great city — New York. Together we trudged through airports, museums, and good times. At the end of our trip, we turned our eyes toward home; although we were exhausted beyond imagination, we held within us an experience that would long be remembered.

Preserve your
They're all that's

THE SCENE OF SENIOR PARTY

"Three Coins in a Fountain" was the theme of the 1971 Senior Party. Spirits of the seniors danced excitedly to the music of "The Messengers." A special thanks goes to the Senior Room Mothers for their tireless vigor through four years and the Senior Party — our last class function.
